Bertus:

Some years ago I was approached by young people who were victims of sects that, under the guise of "faith", did the worst things with them. With them in mind, I have created this website especially for young people.

The Infinite Way ® is a movement in Consciousness and is NOT a religion, sect or the like that recruits young people (with problems), locks them up in castles, buildings, etc. and then does the worst things with them under the guise of "religion". Far from it: There are NO temples, physical buildings in The Infinite Way. The only "temple" is your consciousness that you can connect with at any time and in any place. Although The Infinite Way is an individual study, a "tape recording class" is held - if there is sufficient interest - and that is usually at the home of a student. The procedure is: welcome by the leader / leader, and a brief explanation of the tape recording you are going to hear, 10 minutes of meditation, playing Joel's tape recording, end: 10 minutes of meditation. NO discussions, just immerse yourself in the Spirit of God. Then everyone goes his / her way. NO discussions. You are completely free to go whenever you want. No one will stop you, no one in The Infinite Way will ever touch you, let alone hurt you. If there is a "touch," it is the Spiritual Touch of love, prayer and meditation that you may be guided. Guided to what? To our side? Oh NO. So that you may be guided to that Path, that Way that corresponds to your current state of Consciousness, be it Protestant, The Infinite Way, Russian religion, Chinese religion, Buddhism, for my part Hottetots.

Would that result in you joining The Infinite Way ®: great, we are happy for you and are more than willing to lead you further. Would that result in you turning to another movement, religion, etc.: also nice, we are happy for you that you have found your way. We will just as well pray and meditate for you.

Nobody in The Infinite Way is interested in your private affairs, your finances, etc. No one will ever ask you for money. (The only person who can ask you for money is me, Bertus, and then only if you want to receive a specific work). Although this activity is funded through voluntary contributions, what you wish to contribute is strictly yours. You are free as a bird. If you wish to join, be welcome. If you wish to leave, please go and find your way. Just as good friends. No hard feelings at all.

I give you this “cup of cold water” once and will definitely not - say a month after now - remind you with: "say, I sent you information about The Infinite Way then and then, what did you think?" NO. If there is a response in you to this message (and I do NOT mean your human mind - I am sure that is okay) no, I mean your Soul faculties, your Inner Heart So whether there is a response in you and you want to know more, you must come back to me or to one of our other workers. YOU!!!
